Message from the President

For Monday the 17th November 2008

About our meeting

We had a busy evening with a number of activities past, present and future. The day before our weekly meeting we catered for the Bendigo Bank Fun Run that raised in excess of One Thousand Dollars. Fellowship and fundraising with fun was observed with Rotarians and their families working together supporting a large community event. Thank you all.

We had our Annual General Meeting during our meeting with a number of issued tabled. The AGM was held over for a fortnight due to the new board in progress of being promulgated and some further reports sought. Our masterful Sergeant Roger handed out winnings from the Melbourne Cup Sweeps along with a good fines session.

One of our esteemed members Rotarian Rob Haughton (President Nominee as well) was our guest speaker. Rob gave us an insight into his vocation as a Coordinator of the Transition Care Program. Rob is an Occupational Therapist by profession. Many concerns of elderly citizens facing discharge from hospital are dealt with by Rob's program.

Coming up we have a major fundraiser with the Bendigo Swap Meet catering. Please contact PP PHF Colin Clark regarding an opportunity to be part of this major fundraiser and be in the running for our Golden Spatula Award.

The Monday meeting after this weekend's Swap Meet Event is cancelled (Monday 17th November). This has been arranged to maximise participation with the Swap Meet.

Please make Friday the 28th November 2008 available for the upcoming Trivia night to be held at Gateway Park at 7:30pm. Members, Partners, Guests are all invited for a worthy fundraiser.

Please see Liz Durr regarding assistance for the 2009-2010 Board. President Elect Liz is keen to hear from members who want to be part of the leadership team.

November is Foundation Month.

Yours in Rotary,

Glenn Ludeman for
Kaylyn Journeaux
