For 21st July, 2008

Message from the President

For Monday the 21st July 2008

We were delighted to welcome AG Hugh Wheeler to our Dinner and Board Meetings this week.

We are actively fostering our "Friends of Rotary" program and are hopeful that this will help us grow our club membership in the future. Further information regarding this program can be gained from Secretary Glenn Ludeman

Three special visitors from the Bendigo Pet Partners Program, Debbie Kennedy, Lisa Dewhurst and Jackie, (a very well-mannered German Shepherd) also shared our meeting. Lisa outlined how beneficial the program has been in the organisations/institutions currently involved in the program. The dogs and their volunteer owners complete a thorough one day training seminar before being accredited to participate in the program.

Organisation for the Variety Bash is well under way, thank you Tony Plant and Gary Pinner, (Rotary Club of Bendigo South). A Working Bee will be held on Tuesday 12th to prepare for the big event on Wednesday evening. Thank you for the great support already shown by members to assist. A reminder that there will not be a meeting on Monday 11th.

An opportunity has been presented to the club to support PWP (Parents Without Partners). This involves use of the club rooms, entertainment, BBQ and other activities. The Board has approved this program in principle and further information will be disseminated to the members as it becomes available.

Anna Lena is our new exchange student. She will arrive from Germany this week. We look forward to meeting her.

Could members please return completed Working with Children forms return ASAP.

Yours in Rotary,

Kaylyn Journeaux
President
