friendships?*

Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

Message from the President

For Monday the 25th August 2008

About our meeting

A fantastic night with our meeting of 60 people (59 actually). Our District Governor Jim Studebaker with Carol did his official visit with our Assistant Governor Hugh Wheeler as well. President Kaylyn surprised a number of members and a partner of a member with four Paul Harris Fellow Recognitions being bestowed. Glenn Ludeman, Colin Clark, Hans Franke and Verna Doak were bestowed with this esteemed recognition. These are well deserved by all recipients and recognition of long service to Rotary. Family members were present during these presentations and emotions were observed in a positive way.

District Governor Jim Studebaker addressed the club and covered in some detail the five attributes of Rotary, with encouragement to all members to remember we serve.

On this Saturday, Storm the Stage has its State Final at the Capital Theatre. This is at 7:30pm with a gold coin donation. National finals will be held in Western Australia in early December. Storm the Stage fosters the talents of 16-19 Year old Australians in the performing arts of Drama or Musical Theatre.

On Saturday the 6th of September we need some assistance with bar work for an activity. Please let Bob Mathrick know of your availability.

On this Sunday a lunch is available at the Mandurang Valley Winery meeting at 11:30am at Gateway Park to venture there. Numbers to Tony Plant ASAP please. This is an event on behalf of the Foundation Directorate.

Could members please return completed Working with Children forms to Trevor Kuhle ASAP. Those with current WWC please let the Secretary know. These are required for many activities involving youth.

Yours in Rotary,

Kaylyn Journeaux
President
