Message from the President

For Monday the 6th October 2008

About our meeting

We had a fantastic Progressive Dinner for our meeting on Monday. We started at the club rooms with our pre dinner drinks and savouries. We then headed to Peter Spurling and Julie's house for our main course. Dessert was enjoyed at Judy Kidman's house. A special thank you to our members for opening up and welcoming us into their houses for our progressive dinner activity. Good food and good fellowship was certainly observed by all present (see photos attached).

As part of our Vocational Service Month we have our THALES (formerly ADI / Ordinance Factory) visit this coming Monday (6th October). The following week we will be going to the Yin Yang Chinese Restaurant in Kangaroo Flat for our meeting. This restaurant catered for our Changeover Dinner and received excellent reports. Costs for this dinner will be detailed at the meeting prior but should be similar to our normal club meeting cost. We need accurate numbers for all of these events please.

Please see myself regarding Christmas Puddings that is an excellent Rotary Fundraiser.

September is New Generations Month and October is Vocational Service Month.

Yours in Rotary,

Kaylyn Journeaux
President
